ANDES 7.1

THE PEAK OF COMFORT & CONVENIENCE

Make the most of your home workout time with our advanced Andes 7.1 Elliptical. Bluetooth FTMS connects to popular training apps, and induction brake technology provides smooth, instant resistance changes. Sonic Surround speakers bring entertainment to life, while a 6.25" backlit blue LCD display with quick control keys provides complete feedback and intuitive operation. It includes contact grips and Bluetooth HR tracking, 14 integrated training programs and 30 electronically adjustable resistance levels. Folding design reduces size by 40% for easy, out-of-the-way storage.

ADD CHALLENGE WITH A TAP

Andes 7.1 ellipticals include quick keys with preset levels that make it easy to control resistance. Simply increase resistance when taking on a HIIT interval or following instructor cues, then quickly reduce resistance for rest periods or cooldowns. Everyone from beginners to true exercise enthusiasts can find a level of challenge right for them at the touch of a button.

CONTROL AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Exact Force Induction Brake offers instant, smooth, precise resistance changes at the push of a button, and with no moving parts, it's quieter and more durable as well.
